

MACEDON RANGES ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEMBERS BIOGRAPHIES

Surname	First Name	Biography
Davis (Chair)	Brett	Brett Davis is a qualified Town Planner with over 23 years experience in Project Management, Urban and Strategic Planning, Property, Development Management and Facilitation. He is immediate past President of the Planning Institute of Australia (Vic Division) and served as the Victorian Division Vice-President from 2009-2011 and President from 2011-2013. Brett is a member of VPELA and a 2010 Fellow of the Leadership Ballarat and Western Region Program. From 2011-2015 Brett was a member of the Building Appeals Board. Brett is based in regional Victoria and has worked extensively across the state on regional planning matters. On 5 July 2015, Brett commenced a 12 month secondment as a Senior Panel Member with Planning Panels Victoria. Brett has worked in throughout Australia on numerous large-scale projects and led multi-disciplinary teams for public and private organisations. Brett has sat on a number of Panels and Advisory Committees including the Woolworths Oxygen Advisory Committee and the Logical Inclusions Advisory Committee.
Carlisle	Sarah	Sarah Carlisle is a planning and environmental lawyer with 20 years experience. She holds a Bachelor of Law (Hons) and a Bachelor of Arts. Sarah has developed extensive expertise in planning, environmental and administrative law. She has worked in both private practice and in the public sector in Victoria, and in the United Kingdom. She has a sound knowledge of Victorian strategic and statutory planning, having advised on a comprehensive range of issues including permit applications, planning scheme amendments, VCAT appeals, judicial review proceedings and proposals for legislative reform. Sarah has advised extensively on the planning and environmental assessment and approvals processes for major projects.
Elliott	Mandy	Mandy Elliott has qualifications in social science, applied science (environmental management) and environmental law. Mandy is a Principal Environmental Scientist with over 20 years of professional experience in both the private (consulting) and public sector, including ten years at the Department of Planning and Community Development within the Environmental Assessment Unit. Mandy's key role at DPCD was to manage large private and public projects that required environmental impact assessment under the Environment Effects Act 1978 . From February 2010 Mandy has been working in the private sector as a Principal Environmental Scientist, based in the Geelong region and as Director of EnviroME Pty Ltd. As a consultant, Mandy has undertaken projects for and provided advice to State Government Agencies and a

		range of private clients. Mandy has credentials in Environmental Impact Assessment in Australia and is the author of Environmental Impact Assessment in Australia: Theory and Practice-6th Ed. (February 2014). Mandy is a Certified Environmental Practitioner (Impact Assessment Specialist) under the Environment Institute of Australia and New Zealand's certified environmental practitioner scheme.
Kendal	Lisa	Lisa Kendal is an experienced environmental and town planner, with over 20 years experience in local government, private practice and the not for profit sector. She holds a Master of Arts (Environmental Science) and a Master of Social Science (Environment and Planning), and has qualifications in environmental land management, sustainable development and governance. Lisa is a member of the Planning Institute of Australia and the International Association for Public Participation. Lisa is based in Ballarat and has worked on a range of strategic, statutory, open space and environmental planning projects across regional Victoria. Lisa specialises in research, stakeholder and community engagement and planning and delivery of multidisciplinary projects. Lisa has extensive Board and Committee experience, including administration and participation on a number of local government strategic advisory committees, most recently as a member of the Ballarat Strategy Steering Committee.